岐阜 地歌舞伎

Kabuki, a Traditional Japanese Art, Registered as an Intangible Cultural Heritage by UNESCO

Local people admired professional traveling performers, built their own playhouses, and started to enjoy performing Kabuki by themselves. This is how Jikabuki was born.

To experience the atmosphere of Jikabuki that has been loved by people since the Edo period, you must come to Gifu Prefecture, where Jikabuki is performed the most vigorously in Japan.

ユネスコの無形文化遺産にも登録されている、日本の伝統芸能「歌舞伎」。

プロの旅役者に憧れ、地方の人々が芝居小屋を建てて自ら演じることを楽しむようになり、地歌舞伎は生まれました。

地歌舞伎が日本で最も盛んな岐阜県で、江戸時代から庶民に愛され続けてきた地歌舞伎の情緒をぜひ体感してみてください。
